

We observe a non shifted peak (λ) at all peaks because of the photons colliding ~~from~~ to the heavy carbon atoms and getting reflected.

So at any angle we detect photons with (λ) wavelength and the λ' wavelength due to Compton effect