

Energy levels in hydrogen atoms are separate because the energy levels are quantised. According to De Broglie, the circumference of the energy level must be an integral multiple of the de Broglie wavelength of the electron. All other wavelengths of electrons in this energy level would quickly die out due to destructive interference.